This is why I hate editing shounen series, there tend to be lots of cpe battles, which means lots of cpe restoring. But I've checked a lot this chapter, since I don't think that many people actually pay attention to whether or not the cloning is perfect.
-P For those of you that actually care enough to read this, thank you. :) But you're also probably the ones who care enough to notice every imperfection in my editing. And with this, I will most likely drop this series indefinitely, due to lack of followers and interest on my part. (Sorry, I'm an extremely noncommittal person when there are no battles. :)
